General Profile

Karla Hunter is an attorney focusing on business and individual taxpayer tax resolution with Hopp Accounting & Tax Service. Karla received her J.D. from Chicago Kent College of Law where she interned in the tax clinic. She served as the Director of Tax Controversy for Administer Justice representing clients before the IRS and in Tax Court. She was an attorney with a law firm representing businesses with payroll tax, flow through, estimated tax, and corporate tax issues. She was a guest speaker at the IRS national tax forum and has presented tax education to attorneys at the Kane County Bar Association. She has focused her career in tax resolution, representing clients before the IRS and State taxing authorities in exam, appeals, collection and before the US tax court. Karla was a reviewer for the American Bar Association practice manual for tax practitioners, "Effectively Representing Your Client Before the IRS". Karla's mission is to provide affordable solutions to businesses and individuals who find themselves in trouble with the IRS or state taxing agencies.
